

WHAT: Make Music Day is a day of music open to all in the streets, businesses, parks, venues and wherever people feel like playing or listening. Make Music Day Australia joins other events worldwide as communities come together in celebration of music and the countless benefits that making music brings.

WHEN: Make Music Day, Thursday, June 21

WHERE: Wherever you can organise or join a music making event

WHY: The Australian Music Association invites people in cities, towns and places to celebrate Make Music Day, giving community members of all ages, creeds, and musical persuasions the chance to experience the joy of making music together.

By establishing one specific day each year, June 21, to celebrate music, Make Music Day encourages both amateur and professional music making, and empowers individuals to seek out ways to celebrate music in their community.
